Print Subscribers: How to Get Web Access to the Archives

Setting up free electronic access to our website allows you to search the Gun Tests archives for specific guns — and you get access to the current issue on the web before it hits your mailbox. Also, you can check the status of your subscription account, update your mailing or email address, pay your subscription invoice or renew your subscription, and communicate with the editorial staff. Current subscribers can begin activating free online access by typing this into your browser: Gun-Tests.com/activate.

To create your web-access login, you provide your first and last name, the ZIP/Postal Code, and your account number. That’s the first 11 digits found on your magazine’s mailing label just above your name. If you can’t get the account activated, contact us at Customer_Service@GunTests.Info, or call 1-800-829-9084.

There are two ways to find guns we’ve reviewed. The Compare Guns feature (top left corner of the page under the logo) allows you to input several descriptors and narrow the search results. Or you can use the Search function. If you search for a common item, such as “22 LR,” you’ll get tons of references. Basically, the search function finds every instance of the searched-for topic and lists the accompanying articles the topic appeared in. The more specific and unique the reference, the better the search. We do our best to list the catalog numbers for guns we’ve tested, so that’s usually a good place to start. There’s also an “Advanced Search” area to help you narrow the results.

We welcome mail from our readers. To send us comments or questions about previous articles in the magazine, email us at: GunTestsEditor@icloud.com. If you’ll include the month and year of the article you’re writing about, it’s a big help. Also, please include your name, address, and phone number. We won’t publish your personal information without your permission, but we may need to contact you. GT
