

SIGARMS P250 TWO-TONE 9MM, $749

Gun Tests grade: A-

If a DAO pistol is your choice of handgun, the quality of the Sig Sauer trigger combined with its crystal-clear sights can make up for shortcomings elsewhere.

Both the P2000 LEM and the P250 began with long trigger pulls. But the Sig Sauer trigger swept all the way to the break with little change in resistance. The distance of the pull was the same every time, and the trigger had to be fully released before it would reset. This did not stop us from being able to fire it quickly.

Aside from the new DAO trigger, the modular design of the P250 was its key feature. The metallic subassembly was the registered firearm. The polymer grip body could be changed to suit different hand sizes. But as of this writing, only the
