

TAURUS JUDGE NO. 4510TKR-3BUL 3-INCH 45 LC/410-BORE, $620

GUN TESTS REGRADE: B+

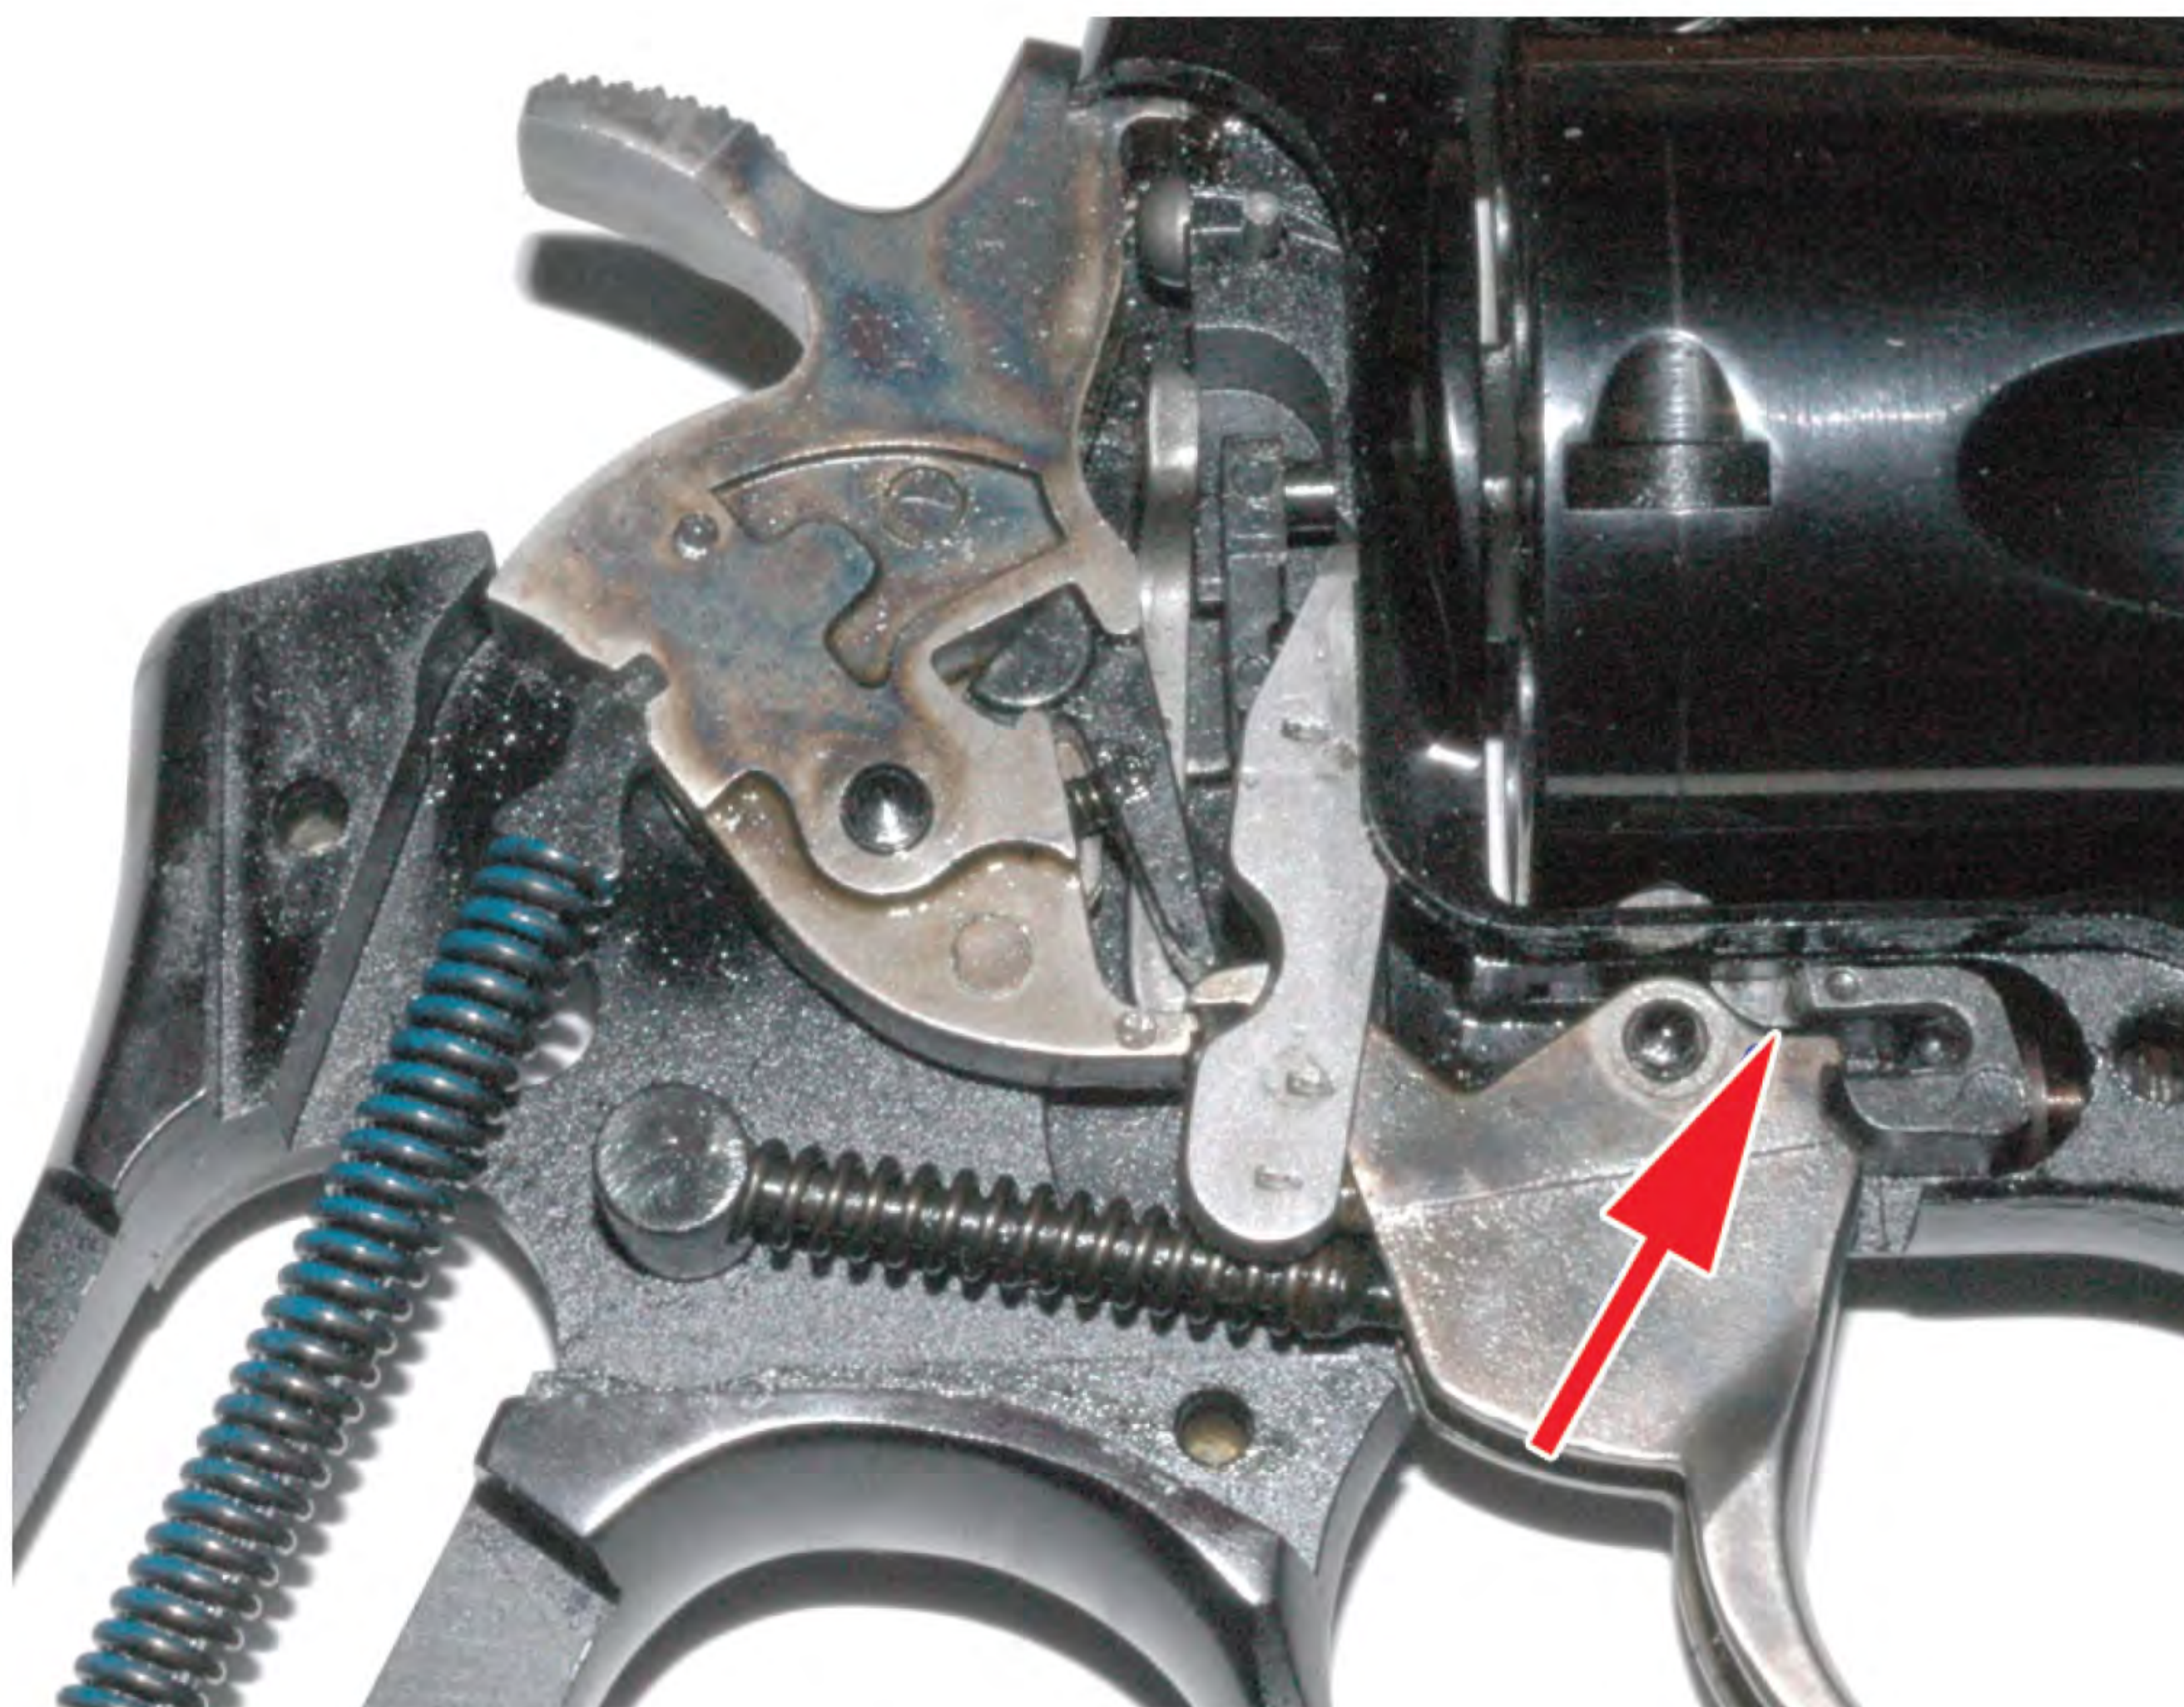

Because we think serious use of 410 shotshells is the main reason for this design, the better-patterning gun has to get higher marks. For that reason we downgraded the Judge to a B+.

Here's the latch on the crane of the Taurus Judge. These long cylinders need to be secure at both ends or serious spitting can result.

Left: The inside of the Taurus showed careful redesign of the old S&W system to a much simpler system, far easier to work on. This required no special tools to disassemble. The arrow points to the bolt, which we filed slightly to make sure it would engage the bolt cuts in the cylinder, even though there might be some dirt present. This is a job for a qualified gunsmith.
